CYCLONE'S FURY.

GREAT PERSIAN GULF
HAVOC

PLACED DEPT WITH OUT

(Reuter's Service.)

Karachi, Oct. 26.
The disaster in the Persian Gulf was due to a cyclone which accompanied an earthquake worse than any first reported.

The pearl-fishing fleet is practically wiped out. Over 200 boats were sunk and the estimate is confirmed that 7,000 people were drowned.

Two boats belonging to British warships were lost, but one has been recovered.

The islands of Tamb and Hengam suffered severely and many acres of date palms at Basra were devastated.

An earlier cable stated: A cyclone which visited the Persian Gulf is stated to be the worst with living memory, according to telegrams received from Basra, in which it is reported that forty vessels have been sunk and that there is a death toll variously given as 7,000. Basra is said to be the centre which has been most affected.

MORE FAREWELLS.

SIR R. E. STUBBS AT TIFFIN.

THURSDAY'S HOUR CHANGED.

His Excellency the Governor was the guest at (tiffin to-day) of heads of departments of the Civil Service of Hongkong at which (delicious) speeches were delivered. The final farewell reception on behalf of the community of Hongkong will take place on Thursday and it should be noted that the hour of convening the meeting has been altered.

For the greater convenience of the general public the reception has now been arranged to take place at 5.15 p.m. sharp, instead of 4 o'clock, as previously announced.

Lady Stubbs.
The presentation ring to Lady Stubbs subscribed for by her lady friends in the Colony will be on view in Messrs. Faulkner's window until Thursday morning next.

"MUST STOP!"

UNWANTON DESTRUCTION OF FORESTS.

HEAVY FINES IMPOSED.

Heavy punishment is in store for those who continue to devastate the Government plantations or receive the illicit spoils, as some offenders found when they were brought before Mr. S. B. B. McElderry at the Central Magistrate's Court this morning.

"This wholesale destruction of forests must stop," said His Worship in imposing the maximum fine of $100 on a Chinese who was found in possession of trees cut from the plantations at Wong Nei Chung and converted into firewood.

Three Chinese women were subsequently charged with cutting trees at Leighton Hill in the vicinity of the houses at Broadwood Road. Their operations, on the hillside yesterday, were observed by Mr. A. Kinross and Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, who promptly laid information resulting in the arrest of the women.

Each of the offenders was fined $50, and Mr. Kinross was thanked by the Magistrate for his display of public spirit in this matter.

Spitting Menace.
During the hearing of the cases a Chinese violently cleared his throat and spat on the floor. He was fined $1 by Mr. McElderry, who advised him to observe better manners when attending Court in future.

Raid on Hawkers.
Unlicensed hawkers were rounded up in larger numbers yesterday. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest in the small Court having 33 cases to deal with. Fines ranging up to $9 were imposed, whilst some who failed to pay were held their bail money.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

GOVERNOR AND ADVERSE COMMENT.

PARTING REMARKS.

The subjecting of the Civil Service to Press criticism was referred to by H.E. the Governor this morning, the occasion being the gathering in the Ball room of Government House of representatives of all Civil Service departments upon the occasion of the presentation of a farewell address to Sir R. E. Stubbs.

The address, which bears the signatures of 1,640 members of the Civil Service, was contained in a blackwood box with ornamental clasps. Resting on the address was an impression in brass of the seal of the Colony and below followed the signatures. The box was made at the Naval Yard.

After the address had been read and presented by Sir Claude Severn, Colonial Secretary, His Excellency replied and said that he found it difficult to find words with which to express his thanks for the address which the members of the Civil Service in Hongkong had presented to him. His Excellency went on to say that farewell addresses in common with obituary notices were scarcely expected to tell the exact truth and it was sometimes necessary to make allowances for failings. If after allowing for any such failings he had been able to do some good for the Civil Service of the Colony he was extremely glad that it had fallen to his lot to do so. The Civil Service of any Colony or Government had always, for reasons he could not understand, been selected by the Press and anonymous correspondents as the object of much adverse comment. Why this was so he was never able to find out. If one read some of the articles in the Press one would imagine that the Colonial Service was always under suspicion. His Excellency assured them that this was the impression he had gathered.

His Excellency went on to say that he had served His Majesty's Government for 26 years, the first 13 years of which were spent at the Colonial Office and he could say without hesitation that the Civil Service of Hongkong was equal to that of any Colony both from the point of view of intelligence and ability. They had had times of considerable difficulty during the past six years without any undue straining.

Continuing His Excellency said that he had always resented that the Navy, as the Senior Service, had taken for itself the title of the Silent Service. That title was equally applicable to the Civil Service. They never replied and were always silent.

Cadet Department.

In a Colonial Government such as Hongkong there were many departments and it would be invidious to single out any particular department for special comment. The members of all departments had to be thanked for their able assistance throughout his tenure of office. He would, however, like to refer to the Cadet Service specially for their versatility. On looking round he could see various members of the Department who had done yeoman service. He noticed Mr. Dyer Ball who changed office from Bench to desk with equal capacity. There was Mr. Trautman, who attended to Chinese affairs and who had also dealt with sanitary matters of the Colony. Mr. Messer, who specialised in one particular branch and Mr. Gompertz who, in his youth occupied several offices in the Government.

His Excellency concluded by thanking the members of the Civil Service for the presentation. (Loud applause.)

The meeting terminated by three hearty cheers for His Excellency, the Governor, called for by Sir Claude Severn.

The Address.

The address reads as follows:—
To His Excellency Sir Reginald Edward Stubbs, Knight-Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Hongkong and its dependencies and Vice-Admiral of the South China Sea.

We would add our tribute to the untiring interest of Lady Stubbs in matters connected with the welfare of the community and we regret that her strenuous efforts have overtaxed her strength and prevented her from being as much amongst us as we could have desired. Our best wishes for her health and happiness will follow her to another sphere of activity near.

We bid you farewell in the assurance that you will continue to uphold the honour and advance the interests of the Colony.

Yours faithfully,
The Members of the Civil Service of Hongkong

NAVAL COUP.

ANTI-RED MOVEMENT
EXTENDED.

FURTHER OBJECTIVES.

The report that a number of Red armed launches were captured near Macao—mentioned in Saturday's "China Mail"—has been confirmed.

Altogether 13 launches were rounded up and brought to the Northern wharfig "Ying Kien." (A correspondent stated that 11 were taken by the gunboat "Ching Hoi" and moored alongside a larger vessel.)

All the 13 launches were under the Canton River Defence Bureau. The crews were sent back to Canton and the launches handed over to Yuen Tai and Lam King-wan for their anti-Red offensive in the Heungshan district.

News has reached Hongkong that Lam King-wan has assumed office, pro tem, as Heungshan district magistrate with headquarters at Shekoi. It is also learned that the scope of the anti-Red coup is being extended to Kongmoon, the port of the Sze Yap districts and to Shuntak, the very rich silk producing area.

WEST RIVER GAIN.

In yet another part of the province of Kwangtung has occurred a rising against the Canton Kuomintang.

A report which is given considerable credence is that San Hing, not far from Shiching has been taken by an anti-Red commander who raised about 3,000 troops for his coup. The local Red nominee, who had about a hundred bodyguards, is stated to have fled, without offering resistance.

LINER'S MISHAP.

STRIKES TANKER DURING SQUALL.

BEACHED THEN DOCKED.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Singapore, October 25.

The "Marrella" from Australia, approaching Singapore yesterday afternoon, ran into a squall and came into collision with a tanker.

The "Marrella" was damaged amidships and the engine room became flooded; the holds remained intact.

The "Marrella" was beached but eventually docked.

An Italian cruiser landed the passengers.

of the Civil Service in the colony of Hongkong, desire to express our sincere regret that the time has arrived for taking leave of you on the approaching termination of your period of office as Governor of the colony.

The six years of your administration have witnessed a general readjustment of values throughout the world, and they have also covered a period of local expansion and development which is quite without precedent in the previous history of the colony. The resulting disturbance of established conditions has profoundly affected the Civil Service, in common with all sections of the community, and we owe you a deep debt of gratitude for your sympathetic recognition of the difficulties which this change of circumstances has imposed upon us, and for the impartial consideration which you have given to each individual case. Many of us retain a grateful memory of personal assistance and advice.

We would add our tribute to the untiring interest of Lady Stubbs in matters connected with the welfare of the community and we regret that her strenuous efforts have overtaxed her strength and prevented her from being as much amongst us as we could have desired. SAFETY FIRST.

RE-OPENING OF SHAMEEN GATE.

DUE PRECAUTIONS TAKEN.

The small Shameen gate, part of the larger one, was to be opened to-day, Sir James Jamieson having communicated this intention to the usual meeting of residents at the Club.

When the smaller French gate was opened, zig-zag barricades leading to the bridge were placed, leading from the open gate, and have remained there since, the object being to render impossible the success of any rush, however remote such a contingency may be.

Similar precautions, it is thought, will be taken to-day at the British gate.

Discussion has centred round the possible opening of the gate and the removing of the barricades for some considerable time, many holding that the continuance of such measures are unnecessary and leading to the creation of bitterness. On the other hand it is held that there should be some measure of reciprocity by the Canton Government.

Acceptation of the responsibility for the safeguarding of Shameen against further attacks, the removal of pickets and restriction of movements of British residents in Canton are looked upon by them as the first essentials for the removing of the barricades. Again, there is the possibility that should an attack eventuate—from the anti-Red forces in the north and the Red troops be defeated—chaos may reign in Canton and measures of defence for Shameen will be vitally necessary.

The pickets outside the French gate have again resumed their activities and the importation of all food into Shameen is forbidden. The pickets claim the right, and exercise it, of searching all belongings of people entering. Americans also being subject to search. The American Vice-Consul was stopped as he was returning to Shameen with rice birds and these were taken from him.

The move which the Canton merchants have made in the direction of peace is the inevitable outcome not only of their direct losses in trade but of the taxation which has been particularly heavy because of the expenditure for the campaign on the East River.

There is in Canton money hardly sufficient for the feeding of the strikers for any considerable period, and certainly none for clothing them for the winter.

PEACE MOVES.

CANTON'S DELEGATION
ARRIVES.

TRADE RESTORATION WANTED.

Delegates from Canton's four leading commercial institutions arrived in Hongkong on Saturday, to discuss with local Chinese merchants steps to restore communications between the two ports and to end the "strike."

It is stated that the delegates desire to ascertain in what way the Hongkong district commercial associations can assist in the matter. The Canton representatives are also mentioned as having expressed themselves as keen to take the matter up with their Government on their return, as they particularly desire a resumption of trade.

According to the vernacular report the delegates sought an interview with Mr. Ho Kwong-shan Saturday and were to have approached the two Chinese representatives on the Legislative Council this morning.

FRIDAY'S FATAL ACCIDENT.

Contrary to the first official report, it appears that the bus in which Miss Beattie Mackay was travelling, and which was involved in a collision with a motor car, was not a motor car but a bus.

Miss Mackay, who was travelling alone, was killed instantly. The driver of the motor car, which was a motor car, was also killed. The bus was travelling from the North to the South, and the motor car was travelling from the South to the North. The collision took place at the intersection of the two roads.

CABINET CRISIS.

NATIONALIST MINISTERS RESIGN.

GERMAN AND LOCARNO.

(Reuter's Service.)

Berlin, October 26.

The members of the German National Party in the Reichstag have approved a decision that their representatives in the Cabinet, Herr Schiele and Dr. Neuhaus and Dr. Von Schlieben, respectively Ministers of the Interior, National Economy, and Finance shall tender their resignations in consequence of the Party's dissatisfaction with the Locarno decisions.

"VAGUE PROMISES" CHARGE.

Berlin, October 25.

It is noteworthy that only sixty of the 111 members of the National Party attended the meeting this evening. It is believed the Party voted against the Locarno agreement, chiefly because it is dissatisfied with the Allies' "vague promises" regarding amelioration of the régime in the Rhineland and the evacuation of the Cologne zone regarding which they complain no single written guarantee has been given.

COMPLICATED SITUATION.

Berlin, Oct. 25.

The National Party's unexpected decision to withdraw its Cabinet Ministers has created a complicated political situation in Germany. It is generally assumed that Dr. Luther will fill the gaps in the Cabinet with the Under-Secretaries and submit the Locarno agreement for ratification to the Reichstag when it assembles in the middle of November. If the Socialists vote for the treaty it is certain of a safe passage, but the Socialists may abstain as they may not wish the German Nationals to escape responsibility for the treaty's acceptance, and then tell the country they alone voted against renunciation of Alsace-Lorraine and other "German land," and thereby gain prestige at the expense of the Democratic parties. Thus Dr. Luther would practically be obliged to dissolve the Reichstag and appeal to the country on the straight question of Locarno. The election could scarcely be held before December, so though there is not much doubt of Germany's verdict, Germany's ratification of the treaty would necessarily be postponed.

EARLIER CABLES.

Berlin, October 24.

It is anticipated that the ministers belonging to the German National Party in the Cabinet will retire in consequence of a resolution by the Governing Board of the Party that the results of the Locarno negotiations are unacceptable.

A Government majority for the ratification of the treaties is expected notwithstanding the defection. Although the decision of the Nationalist Party has caused considerable excitement, it is premature to speak of a Government crisis, as the final word is resting with to-morrow's decision of the German National Reichstag Party. Meanwhile President Hindenburg, Dr. Luther and Dr. Stresemann have cancelled their engagements and are remaining in the capital to negotiate with the Party leaders, with an aim to reaching a settlement.

Dr. Stresemann speaking at an election meeting at Karlsruhe, vigorously repudiated the suggestion that the Powers represented at Locarno intended to form an anti-Russian bloc, and declared that Germany would have nothing to do with such a policy, since she laid the greatest value on her old relations with Russia.

PLANES IN GALE.

(Reuter's American Service.)

Baltimore, October 25.

With nobody on board, 17 of the 23 American Navy planes broke their moorings in a 75 mile gale last night. They are now being towed back to the base. Seven of the planes were damaged.

SEEING THINGS.

To those in high places is it given to say and do things, which, in those in lesser stations, would be considered unpardonable. An enquiry from a high judicial bench as to "What are Keats?" is greeted, not in terms of surprise, but in those of amusement. The more homely or topical "Who is George Robey?" from another legal luminary is met with the laughter it was probably meant to evoke. Hongkong may be free from examples of educational lapses, but there is evidence which suggests that in almost similar grooves there is a wide gap between actual knowledge and surmise. Did not H.E. the Governor on one occasion express a distaste for the Y.M.C.A. because he believed it stood for things which he found did not exist? A glance at Hongkong and its surroundings, particularly a reading of the present Budget debate, almost causes conviction that our superior officials know only about the Colony in those things they do in fact. There is in the Hon. the Colonial Secretary's thinking that the lower level can cease to know at some time, and that the higher level can continue to know.

It is a pity that the Hon. the Colonial Secretary's thinking that the lower level can cease to know at some time, and that the higher level can continue to know.

CHEUNG CHAU NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

There has been a further change in the ferry service, the early fish boat from here having resumed running, so that the early ferry at 6.15 a.m. from Hongkong is added to the time table.

Mr. McArthur, who has been conducting special services, had to leave to catch the steamer this morning, leaving the Island last night, so the meetings have come to a close. Mr. Williams arrived on the afternoon boat but had to return in an hour later. If he had not caught this boat he would have to wait for three weeks for the next. He was to have preached for us on Sunday. Mr. MacMillan is to conduct the service instead. The time of meeting is now 4.50 not 5 p.m.

There was a little excitement yesterday about 11 a.m. when a grass fire was observed among the young pine trees above the late Mr. Cartwright's house. Fortunately it was observed before much damage had been done and half a dozen of the male residents turned out with wet sacks and soon had it extinguished. Many of the trees we fear will not recover from the scorching. Some of the fire fighters wore white duck suits which had changed colour by the time the fire was out.

Another grass fire started below the London Mission house on Sunday afternoon. Some of those who helped to extinguish the former one were again to the fore. Quite a large area was burnt. Fires are also to be seen on Lantau Island. Fortunately there are men in residence still in the bungalows who will be able to deal with any fire which may start there, and they will be able to deal with any fire which may start there.

William Hogarth, the painter and engraver, founded the British School, and in all the ranks of our artists there has never been one who so unerringly drew so that all could understand. His humour, his satire seem as lively to-day as they did in the eighteenth century. Who is there that does not know the series of pictures representing the "Rake's Progress" and the "Hogarth's Progress"? Nearly every one of his pictures has a lesson written plain for all to read. People said he could not draw. All that happened was that he refused to idealise. Hogarth's engravings were immediate successes; his paintings, apart from the portraits, found few to like them in his own day. Now they are known as masterpieces, giving him rank as artist, satirist, and humorist.

CORRESPONDENCE.

HONGKONG EDUCATION.

(To the Editor of the China Mail)

Sir,—The Hon. Sir H. B. Pollock in his speech at the Legislative Council referred to Education and to what the H.K. Government ought to make it its business to teach in the schools. H.E. the Governor in his reply said that it must be admitted that something has gone wrong with Education as applied to the Chinese from Western quarters. It struck me that all these remarks were in favour of the Head Teachers' or Teachers' Conference which the Committee of the Diocesan Boys' School suggested to the Board of Education.

H.E. the Governor also said that the Director of Education is devoting much time to the discussion of this subject. I think that in view of the tremendous importance of this subject, most people would expect that the Teachers in the Colony, English and Chinese, would be consulted. In the past they have had no voice in the educational policy in the Colony and therefore cannot be blamed for the many obvious mistakes that have been made in general policy and in details.

We all value an official who gets advice from as many sources as possible and we hope that this will be done in the discussions of the Director of Education. Above all things the men and women with practical experience should not be omitted. In medical affairs we consult doctors, in engineering we consult engineers, in legal affairs lawyers; it is therefore reasonable to hope that in this matter of Education Teachers will be consulted.—Yours etc.

MOORISH REFUGEES.

(To the Editor of the China Mail)

Sir,—I beg to bring again to the notice of the public the desperate plight of the Moorish refugees consisting mostly of women and children who have taken refuge in the Tangier International Zone. Their number has swelled to over 6,000, many are actually starving, others are on the verge. In the interior, their homes are burnt, their crops destroyed and the women and children, along with the combatants, suffering from gunshot injuries from air bombs.

The British Red Cross Society has been sending £30 per week for flour to supply one meal a day to the destitute refugees. But this contribution barely enables our friends in Tangier to help more than 1,500 or 2,000 of the others have to go away empty. Want of food and clothing is aggravated by the lack of shelter. There are numbers of people who have "no time" for poetry—that is, they do not like it. The Shreds man has come across over way which might be adopted to inculcate a liking for this supreme type of literature. Sherwood Anderson the well-known writer has a yarn he tells with a grin & the eye—he visited the apartment of a poet one day. As he approached the door he heard vigorous thumping. He pushed his way in, found the poet's wife on the floor, her husband bending over her, in the act of pounding the wretched woman's head hard against the floor, and crying "Blasphemy, I'll make you like poetry!" "To have great poets there must be great audiences too," wrote Walt Whitman, and Mr. Anderson's poet was doing only an extra bit for literature. Wanted: Some Hongkong men to do a bit for literature.

A great Moslem conductor went one day to the opera. Alexandria and was going about his business when another man came behind him and pronounced many insulting words, and made much mock of him, to which he did not reply a word. So a man came forward and said: why do you not answer this fellow who addresses you so villainously? And he patiently replied: and said to the man who urged him to make answer. I do not answer because I do not hear anything pleasing to me.

NEW CHINA WAR?

NORTHERN SITUATION PROSPECTS.

(Reuter's Service.)

Peking, October 24.

Wu Pei-fu's claim that fourteen provinces are supporting him is evidently extravagant. The number is probably half a dozen.

Despite Wu's claim that Feng Yu-hsiang is supporting the anti-Mukdenites, Feng is still sitting on the fence, while it is denied that Feng's henchman, the Tupan of Honan, has entered Kiangsu. Huah-tup has returned from Paotouchen and reports that Feng Yu-hsiang is determined not to participate in hostilities.

Huang Fu went to Paotouchen yesterday on behalf of the Government to ascertain Feng's attitude. Representatives of Chang Tso-lin, Wu Pei-fu, Sun Chuanfang and others are also at present in Paotouchen.

Feng Yu-hsiang's detractors allege that he is waiting to see which side is winning before declaring himself or waiting for the highest offer, while his supporters assert that he is desirous of mediating between the contending factions, and so promoting peace.

TANG SHAO-YI'S VIEWS.

Interviewed by Reuter, Tang Shao-yi said that Wu Pei-fu offered him the chairmanship of the new Alliance, but Tang deprecated the creation of another Government, which would only complicate the situation. He also urged Wu Pei-fu not to attempt the restoration of Tsoo Kua, which would entail recognition of the so-called Constitutional Parliament.

Tang considered it necessary to start with a clean slate, adding that if the Alliance was able to turn out the Peking administration he was ready to co-operate. Wu Pei-fu seems to have accepted this advice, but Tang is awaiting a more definite statement of Wu's policy.

As regards reports of an impending Manchurian restoration, Tang said the Manchurian conquerors brought Manchuria as a dowry into the China-Manchuria union. The Chinese people had thrown out the Manchurian House, but Manchuria seemed still the rightful heritage of the Manchus, and the ex-Empress Hsuan Tang ought to be allowed to resume sovereignty thereover.

In this connection, Tang Shao-yi referred to Japanese expansion on the mainland, as if a Manchurian kingdom would meet the case.

Paris, October 25.—The newspapers, publishing telegrams from Peking, report the seizure of sums of money sent out by Communist organisations to help the French against the French.—Reuter.

MORE SURPRISES.

LOCAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL RESULTS.

NEW SECTION STARTED.

[By Man Mo.]

Saturday saw the new section of the Hongkong Football League—the nursery for local clubs—in the B section of the second division.

In the first league there were surprises. The champions could only draw with the Chinese after having the better of the game and the Senior Babes (Club de Recreo) sprang a surprise on the Gunners. Kowloon continued their triumphant career and the Club beat the local receiving ship. South China "A" sorely disappointed in the second division, section A.

Division II (Section B).

University beat South China "B" 3-0 at South China ground, referee Mr. Smyth. Scorers were T. K. Tan, Lo Sik-wai (South China) and Guterres (2).

South China "C" beat Moslem Club "A" 1-0 at Sookumpoo "B," referee Mr. F. R. Smith, R.A.

St. Joseph's College Boarders beat Moslem Club "B" 1-0 at the College ground, referee Mr. Melvor. Blanco scored.

St. Joseph's College Reserves beat Club de Recreo "B" 2-0 at the College ground, referee Mr. Samy. Haughton and Omar scored.

Surrey Drummers Reserves beat Kowloon F.C. "B" 1-0 at the Club ground, referee Mr. F. Smith. Burridge scored.

From the above it will be seen that all three St. Joseph's College teams were successful.

Play on the whole was not up to the usual standard one or two of the senior teams not being up to the mark. The majority still do not seem to be exploiting any new moves in consequence of the new offside and throw-in laws.

HOCKEY MATCH.

CLUB FIRST XI v. ROYAL NAVY.

The following will represent the Hongkong Hockey Club against the Royal Navy at 6 p.m. sharp on Wednesday at the U.S.R.C.:

R. W. F. Mills; D. A. Sherman, A. P. T. Farquharson; A. S. Hett, E. J. K. Mitchell (capt.), E. W. L. Martin; H. Owen-Hughes, B. C. Allen, W. Woodward, B. D. Evans, G. R. Lammert.

The Navy have a very strong team this year and some excellent hockey should be seen.

GOALLESS DRAW.

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER MATCH.

IRELAND-ENGLAND DUEL.

(Reuter's Service.)

Belfast, Oct. 24.

In the international (association) football match, Ireland drew with England in a goalless match.

The weather was fine. There were 35,000 spectators. Both teams were slow in settling down.

The Irish forwards made many dashing rushes but the English were very sound in defence.

In the second half play was more energetic.

The Irish half-backs did fine spilling work and the English forwards lacked combination but towards the end they improved.

A draw was a fair reflex of the game.

ENGLAND'S TEAM.

As at first selected, the English team was:—

Howard Baker (Chelsea), Smart (Aston Villa), and Wadsworth (Huddersfield).

Kean (The Wednesday), G. Armitage (Charlton A.), and Bromilow (Liverpool).

Austin (Manchester City), Puddfoot (Blackburn R.), C. T. Ashton (Corinthians), Walker (Aston Villa), and Dorrell (Aston Villa).—Times of Ceylon.

[Claude Ashton, the Oxford triple Blue was honoured by being chosen captain.]

London, October 7. In a "soccer" match the United Services League beat the Aldershot Command, 5 goals to 1, at Aldershot.—Times of Ceylon.

HOBBS IN SOCCER.

ABNORMAL SCORING AT HOME.

LATEST FOOTBALL RESULTS.

That Hobbs must have taken up soccer was the explanation by a Hongkong supporter of one of the third division (southern section) teams when the question of abnormal scores was referred to him. Another wit disputed the statement; his supposition was that Home centre-forwards were jealous of J. B. and were out to beat his records!

Be that as it may there has been more remarkable scoring again. A glance at the results below will show that the epidemic is not confined to any particular area.

Huddersfield (league champions, 1923-4 and 1924-5) lose their unbeaten record in the league leaving Chelsea, the London team, with the sole possession of an untarnished sheet so far this season. It is noteworthy that Huddersfield went down on their own pitch. Sunderland scraped home and increase their advantage.

As Middlesbrough also won, Chelsea are still second in the 2nd division.

The order is unchanged in the 3rd division (south) Reading winning away.

A change has to be recorded in the northern division; Bradford moving up from second place to first.

In the Scottish League the two top teams drew. Celtic won, away, by 5-0 but Rangers lost at Glasgow!
